Bridge commissioners. Who are the representatives of the city of Richmond on the commission? The Manchester Courier is out in new improved in every way. Court Richmond, No. 3, I. O. F., will have an excursion to Old Point and Norfolk to-day on the steamer Ariel. The Virginia Educational and Historical Association (colored) commences its third annual session this morning at the Third-

Street Methodist church. Two cargoes of coal were received coastwise yesterday. The shipments were coal, grain, and granite. Kessnich's band gave a concert and ball ning, and have their weekly promenade and there are still a number of warrants unpaid. concert to-night at Franklin Park. The United States internal-revenue receipts vesterday were about $11,000. Thomas Hancock, of Richmond, was vesterday adjudicated a bankrupt on his own petition by Register Atkins. In the Chancery Court yesterday Thomas W. Humphreys entered a suit for divorce against his wife, Rosa Humphreys. Stonewall Jackson Lodge, No. 100. I. O.

G. T., has to-day an excusion to Curl's

Neck on the commodious barge New York. Mr. G. Watson James's new paper, the Standard, will be issued September 7th. The Governor commissioned yesterday the following officers of the Seaboard Elliott Grays (colored), of Portsmouth James A. Corfrew, captain; Lee L. Rooks. first lieutenant; William H. Ackiss, second lieutenant; George L. Blunt, junior second heutenant. There will be a remarkably cheap and attractive excursion to Huntingdon fo-day. The steam-tugs Arctic, W. P. Craighill, and Petersburg, have been inspected by Supervising-Inspector Musaw and Local-Inspector Dunbar, and found to be all right. The None-Such Pleasure Club will give a private cotillon soirée at Schuetzen Park to-morrow night. The following are the receipts of the city treasury for the week ending Saturday: Gas, $1,399.05; water, $644.32; taxes, $181.31—total, $2,224.57.

The Sunday excursion trains were all well patronized, and the parks and pleasure gardens thronged in the afternoon.

SUNDAY-SCHOOL MOVEMENTS BY THE SUN-DAY-SCHOOL UNION OF ALL DENOMINATIONS. Colonel John B. Cary, chairman of the Executive Committee of the Sunday-School Union of all denominations of the State of Virginia, having received a number of let- ing plentifully. His specimens compare at the following rates: ters in regard to holding a grand State Sun- favorably with the very best. day-School Convention in this city during he coming fall, addressed a circularthe non-resident members of the committee and other prominent Sunday-school men asking their opinion as to the propriety of the same. A number of answers were received, nearly all of which favored a convention, and the matter was laid before the Executive Committee. The committee, after mature deliberation, thought as there was not time to get a general expression of opinion from the people it would be best to defer the convention, and in lieu thereof secure the meeting in this city of the "International Lesson Committee," appointed by the International Convention at Atlanta, Ga. Rev. Dr. Vincent, of New York, and other members of the "Lesson Committee" have been written to by the Executive Committee, endorsed by the ministers of all denominations of our city, and it is hoped they will consent. It is proposed to hold a series of grand mass-meetings while they are here, and invite representatives from all parts of the State to attend and enjoy the hospitality of their fellow-workers in this city. The "Lesson Committee" is composed of the most prominent and talented Sunday-school workers in the United States and Canada. SUNDAY CHURCH NOTES .- The pastor of Clay-Street Baptist church, Rev. Samuel Clopton, baptized one person Sunday. At First Baptist church Rev. R. W. Sanders, of South Carolina, preached in the morning a very acceptable sermon to a large congregation. At St. Peter's Cathedral, Rt. Rev. Bishop Gross, of Savannah, Ga., preached an eloquent sermon on the Feast of the Assump-

PERSONAL .- Frank E. Marks, Esq. deputy collector of United States internal revenue at Danville, is in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. T. William Pemberton, accompanied by Miss Maria Blair and Master Charlie Brown, were in St. Petersburg, Russia, at last accounts, and all well. Mr. William P. Bissell, late manager for Franklin Davis & Co., the well-known nurserymen, died yesterday at Rochester, N. Y. Mr. Bissell will be remembered by many friends in this city as a most estimable gentleman. Among the visitors to the Tobacco Exchange yesterday were: C. T. Jones, Fayetteville, West Va.; C. W. Spear, J. C. Birdsong, Petersburg; Robert Tiller, Hanover: H. H. Rutherford, Jr., Baltimore; A. Seddon, Goochland; Charles Penell, Staunton, and eighteen parties from Danville.

CUSTOM-HOUSE ENTRANCES .- The following entrances were reported at the customhouse yesterday : Dutch brig Newa, Nagel master, coastwise from New York, to finish loading flour for Bahia, Brazil; Norwegian bark Gefa, Thompson master, from Liverpool, England, with 3,850 sacks of salt for Lee, Seddon & Co.; and the schooner Ellen Golden, Hodgden, from Baltimore, to load grain for Lisbon, Portugal, for Thomas Branch & Co.

UNCLAIMED AND MISDIRECTED .- Letters and postals addressed as follows remain unclaimed in the Richmond post-office: H S. Ackerly, Captain W. B. Anderson, H. Arch, 313 Franklin; A. G. Anthony, Mrs. 1. Armstrong, Agnes Baker, W. H. Bentley, I. A. Blum, R. F. Bowler, Moses Braxton, 505 Second street; W. E. Bragg, Harvey Brown, R. Burton, 142 Main street; Miss M. L. Charles, W. H. Cox & Co., Miles Crensbaw, T. H. Cumber, P. B. Davis, Elia E. Davis, B. T. Davis, Florence Davis, William Dennis, A. T. Denton, G. H. Dean. THE DEVIL'S PAINT-BRUSH .- In consequence of the inclement weather of last the lecture-room of Rev. Dr. Hoge's church, on the subject which heads this article, was postponed until to-night at 8:15 o'clock. The reputation of the reverend gentleman, should command a large attendance.

COLORED EXCURSIONISTS .- Colored excursionists sufficient in numbers to pack eighteen cars went from Richmond to Beaverdam yesterday.

An excursion party from Petersburg, including some sort of a society, paraded the streets with drums beating and banners flying so grandly that even the thunder and lightning and rain could not interfere with CENTENARY EXCURSIONS .- In addition to their Sunday-school excursion to West Point to-morrow, the ladies of Centenary church will make an excursion to the White Sulphur Springs on the 4th of September. As is the case with all their enterprises, this will likely be a success.

VINE-CULTURE .- Mr. Henry Cook, of Church Hill, is a very successful graperaiser. He has twelve varieties-all yield-

MANCHESTER AND VICINITY.

A Dangerous Practice. - Sunday evening as the excursion train from Petersburg passed Heider's crossing, two youths at tempted to jump on. One succeeded; the ONLY SIX DOLLARS other failed, was dragged some distance, and finally fell, the wheels of several coaches barely missing him. Had he raised his head he would no doubt have been killed. An ordinance should be framed to prevent persons from jumping on trains passing through the city.

Mayor's Court .- The only case before the Mayor's Court yesterday was that of Margaret Quarles (colored), for stealing a pair of Sunday shoes from Maria Coleman (colored). It was continued till to-day.
